Treasures From Our Tradition

Year B of the Lectionary has the Letter to the Ephesians today. Ephesus, today in Turkey, was in the first century a great Greek city, the center for the worship of Diana, the goddess of the hunt. It was a vast city even by modern standards, having nearly half a million people in the time of Paul. Yet it was in a time of economic recession and moral decay. No wonder Saint Paul stayed here the longest. It gave him an enormous and religiously curious audience.

His preaching stirred up the artisans who depended on the pilgrims who came to honor (and buy mementos of) seventeen gods and goddesses enshrined in the city's temples. You can still see the open-air theater where Paul's homily triggered a riot. Paul did have success here, and many conversions among Jews and Gentiles. They seem to have struggled with hope, perhaps because of their suffering from economic woes and isolation.

Some old traditions say that the Apostle John lived out his days here, and that the Blessed Mother was cared for by him. There's no biblical basis for this, but it is certain that a small house just outside the city has been treasured by Christians and Muslims for centuries as the last dwelling of Mary. Long ago, the harbor silted up and the city was nearly abandoned, becoming a small village. As is so often the case, that accident of history preserved the ancient city, so that archeologists have been very successful in revealing ancient Christian sites. One such site is the Church of Mary, probably the first church to be dedicated to the Blessed Virgin, and the site of the Council of Ephesus in 431. Today, a visit to Ephesus is one of the most rewarding journeys for any pilgrim. --Rev. James Field, (c) Copyright, J. S. Paluch Co.

The Aleys-An Inspiring Family Story!

Many people ask us for some different ideas on volunteering and giving. Here is one. The Aleys of Concord, Mass., make giving a family affair, and heifer project participants are enjoying the benefits. This family recently donated an entire Gift Ark...The family decided to build on their giving by donating volunteer time each month to support Heifer. They asked for pledges for their volunteer hours from family and friends.

The family volunteered at a local farm that donates organic product to shelters, soup kitchens and families in need. They also set up a Salvation Army angel tree to collect gifts and clothing and served dinner at a shelter for women and children.

“ ‘It was a great thing because whenever they (the children) weren't so excited about going to volunteer, I just reminded them of the pledges we'd collect for Heifer eventually and that brought them around' Allison Aley said.” World Ark.

Religious Education Update

NO SESSIONS NEXT WEEK
MARCH 29TH, 30TH, APRIL 1ST.

Children's Initiation Process

The children in our 2nd year group will continue their preparation for reception of the sacraments at the Easter Vigil on Tuesday, 3/24 at 6:00 P.M. in the Meeting Center.

Junior High Retreat

The retreat for 7th & 8th Graders originally scheduled for April 4th has been rescheduled for April 18th in the Church Hall from 9:00 – 12:00 P.M. The retreat will be a fun way for our young people to expand their understanding of peace & justice in our world.

Signed Mass

We appreciate Fr. Joe Mulcrone from the Office for the Deaf coming to Lemont to preside over a signed Mass for the children in our deaf program. The children learned more about the Mass by taking liturgical roles, they felt a greater belonging to our Lemont faith community, and the community enjoyed a new experience of liturgy. Thank you to Terri O'Neil, St. Pat's, and the coordinators of the Sunday 5:00 Teen Mass for allowing us to celebrate this special Mass.

Book Marks

Each grade in our program develops a service project as part of our Faith In Action initiative. One project our 4th Grade has undertaken is replenish the supply of book marks they made for parishioners to use during Mass. They made and decorated these religious bookmarks themselves. Look for them soon in your pew!

News and Happenings

Making The Most Of Lent

For the remainder of Lent... consider simplifying!

Too many possessions can make more work or make us lazy. This may seem like a contradiction because much of modern technology is meant to free us of repetitive or menial tasks so that we can be more productive.

Surely automatic washers and dryers free up a day that might be devoted to interaction with children. Computers speed up communication and maximize the number of people we can be in touch with. But do you find yourself washing clothes more often, getting more junk e-mail, trying to keep up with your Facebook, and spending more time on the Internet just because it's so easy?

On the other hand, if children have all kinds of stimulating electronic games and gadgets to occupy their free time, will they think to take a hike or create a neighborhood play or spend time together as family or even take notice of the presence of God in their lives?

Confirmation— A Celebration!

Bishop Francis Kane presided over a celebration of growth in faith last Saturday as 68 of our young people were confirmed. Bishop Kane encouraged our confirmandi to stay close to God even when it's hard to do; Turn to the Holy Spirit for courage so that you build integrity to do the right thing, and for wisdom to know what is the right thing... authentically from God. Thank you to our catechists: Barb & Katie Colaianni, John & Karen Gory, Gerry Novotny, and Kerry O'Donnell who prepared our confirmandi so well; to Sharon Kostas for coordinating the liturgy; to Joe Martorano and his talented choir & instrument ensemble for helping to create an environment conducive to divine encounter and celebration; and to Mrs. Kaye & the 7th Grade for a wonderful reception!

Around St. Al's

Recently in reading some literature, I came across an Alphabet for Parents.

Below is the follow up to last week's article. This covers O to Z. Again, you might want to try to focus on one or two letters each week and see if it makes a difference in the life of your child.

Pin up artwork, tests, writings, heroes, photographs for everyone to enjoy;

Question teachers and coaches about how my child FEELS about their performance in school;

Relax and enjoy childhood;

Squeeze praise in every day;

Turn off the T.V. so we can talk as a family;

Uphold a respect for legitimate authority;

Volunteer when needed;

Wait patiently, especially if my child is a late bloomer, a deep thinker or a slow mover;

Xtra, extra, extra. That's what moms and dads are all about;

Yes, I'm the one that counts. It is my values and my strengths he/she will imitate;

Zoom ahead together in life, aware and confident that he/she is God's unique gift to me;

SPRED Meeting

DATE: Monday, March 23, 2009
 TIME: 7:00 pm
 PLACE: St. Alphonsus Parish Center, northwest corner of Walnut and Logan

There is a program available to people with mental disabilities, autism, cerebral palsy and learning problems no matter their strengths or weaknesses or even their age. The SPRED (Special Religious Education) program was designed specifically to meet their spiritual needs and help them grow in faith. St. Alphonsus welcomes adults, 22 and older. We are building a group in our parishes for 6 to 10 year olds. We have a need for adult volunteers – men and women. The 6 to 10 group has 2 interested catechists. It still needs 4 more catechists before it can begin.

SPRED is not a teaching program but a small faith community that gathers to grow in their faith as they welcome those who have special needs. Each volunteer forms a one on one friendship with a person with disabilities in the group. No previous experience is needed. Training is provided to make you comfortable.

For more information, parents and interested people can come to a gathering on MONDAY, MARCH 23, 7:00 pm at St. Alphonsus' Parish Center located on the northwest corner of Walnut and Logan Streets. Learn more about us. Then make your own decision. SPRED helps one see the Lord who dwells among us as part of our everyday lives. If you have any questions, please give me a call.
