Treasures From Our Tradition

For many centuries, Christian pilgrims have longed to walk in the footsteps of Jesus, and on Passion Sunday the eyes of the world are on the Via Dolorosa, the "Road of Sorrows," in Jerusalem. As soon as it became safe for Christians to worship in public in the fourth century, a way was marked out. It was changed a few times over the years, and today's usual route was sketched by the Franciscans six hundred years ago, although Anglicans and Byzantines have their own unique detours. Friday is the most favored day, although it is crowded then. Almost everyone begins at the Lion's Gate in the Muslim Quarter, and ends at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre. It's less than a quarter mile, but it threads its way through crowded markets with souvenir shops and fast-food snacks. There are, just as in your parish church, fourteen stations along the way. The exact spots are not known, but what matters is the pilgrim's unique ability to see even an ordinary road in a teeming city as something more than meets the eye.

Handicap Parking

St. Al's has five handicap parking spaces for those who need these spots.

We have parishioners who have trouble walking and need the handicap spaces. You could be ticketed if you park illegally.

Around St. Al's

Yeah, it is spring! Hopefully our days of snow and freezing cold are gone. We've had glimpses of spring warmth and sunshine. The sunshine seems to bring out the best in all of us. Perhaps that's one of the reasons Jesus is referred to as the Light. Faith in Him should bring out the best in us as well. During Lent we fast, pray, and help, all for one purpose, to become better, more positive, kinder people-the people of God.

In looking at that purpose, we can examine the Catholic Social Teachings of the Church. One theme is, "Rights and Responsibilities of the Individual Human Person". Possible activities your family could engage in as they live out this teaching are:

FOR PRIMARY CHILDREN:

- Child has a "work partner" in the family and shares family chores.
- Pray for those about to be received into the Church, and for those recently confirmed.
- Ask forgiveness of each other every evening for things we have done during the day that have hurt them.

FOR INTERMEDIATE CHILDREN:

- Talk each day about someone who "did the right thing" in a difficult situation.
- Talk about a time in each family member's life when they felt a lack of respect.
- Discuss current events emphasizing human rights and responsibilities.

FOR JUNIOR HIGH:

- Make a family list of needs and wants, distinguishing between the two.
- Encourage children to correspond with children from a country where human rights is an issue.
- Volunteer to help with Special Olympics.
