Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

What Thorn . . . ?

The Holy Spirit from time to time draws the veil of silence across a particular passage of scripture. Paul's "thorn in the flesh" in today's second reading is one of those silent places, for Paul—much to the frustration of centuries of Christians—never tells us precisely what is the thorn in his flesh. His friends in Corinth most likely knew what he was referring to, which was enough for him. People have speculated that the thorn was anything from bad eyesight to rampant lust. But all this speculation misses the point, for in his weakness, Paul comes to know and live the paradox of the cross of Christ: it is in our weakness that God's greatest strength can be made manifest. When we are strong, we imagine the strength is ours; when we are weakest, we know that any strength or power we might have comes from God alone.

The Thorn Of Self-Doubt

The neighbors and family of Jesus in Mark's Gospel passage today think that Jesus has a thorn: his dubious credentials to be a teacher in the synagogue or a worker of mighty deeds. Some of us might think that we have this "thorn" of insufficient qualifications to be witnesses for God's plan of salvation in Christ. Sometimes we use this imaginary "thorn" of ours to excuse ourselves from the challenging work of living "thy kingdom come" or to lead ourselves into a false humility about our inadequacy as disciples. We can learn a lesson from Jesus and Paul today. Each of us, in spite of physical or personal shortcomings or limitations (real or imagined), is called and chosen to be a messenger of the saving grace of God, each in our own way. Whether we are spouse, parent, child, student, worker, employer—whatever role we have in life, God can work in us and through us to be signs of grace for others. When we find ourselves afflicted with the thorn of self-doubt, let us use that weakness to find our strength in God, and through our faith in Christ, continue to proclaim the Good News of salvation.

Treasure From Our Tradition

Last week's Treasure mentioned the "Nuns of the Battlefield," religious sisters from several communities who served as nurses in the Civil War. Florence Nightingale had only instituted female nurses a decade before in the Crimean War, so the idea of women tending to wounded soldiers was extraordinary. The medical and sanitary conditions on the battlefields were appalling, and the sisters were nearly all teachers. Few had any medical training beyond what they had learned as youngsters in the family. Anti-Catholic prejudice was so deeply entrenched in America that sisters could not wear their habits in public. People on both the Union and Confederate sides soon began to marvel at the sisters' bravery, efficiency, and respect for Protestant soldiers. More than six hundred sisters from twenty-one communities went to war, serving in wretched conditions. They were tough and single-minded, efficient and fearless.

After the war, sisters could appear in public everywhere in the reunited nation, and often received the praise and gratitude of grateful soldiers and family members on behalf of their sister nurses. An outdoor monument to the "Nuns of the Battlefield" stands in Washington at M Street and Rhode Island Avenue. The inscription reads: "They comforted the dying, nursed the wounded, carried hope to the imprisoned, gave in His name a drink of water to the thirsty."

Obstacles

The prophet Ezekiel, Saint Paul, and the Lord Jesus share something in common in today's scripture readings. They all experience obstacles to their ministry. Ezekiel is summoned to prophesy to the Israelites, who are "[h]ard of face and obstinate of heart" (Ezekiel 2:4). Saint Paul recounts how he has been given a "thorn in the flesh" (2 Corinthians 12:7). The Lord Jesus is unable to perform many signs in his native place. The Gospel tells us that "[he] was amazed at their lack of faith" (Mark 6:6). We, too, sometimes encounter obstacles as we travel along the journey of faith. So often we experience weakness on this journey. Let the words of the Lord to Saint Paul encourage us today: "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness" (2 Corinthians 12:9).

News and Happenings

the church. We are in need of a crafts leader and a Snack Coordinator. Please call the RE Office for more details.

Connecting With Our Children

During these summer months, we usually find more opportunities to converse with our children, and perhaps even to make a meaningful connection around faith and experiences. If sharing your faith and other meaningful experiences is new to you, Jim Campbell in his book, "52 Ways to Talk To Your Kids About Faith," suggests you spend a few moments each day to go through the following process: (1) Reflect on your own faith experiences, beliefs, and questions – and how you might share that if the opportunity arises; (2) Pray for assistance in your efforts. Then, when a natural teachable moment arises, you will find that you're better prepared to (3) respond to the opportunity and open to the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Welcome Little Ones To St. Alphonsus

If you are expecting a baby, family and friends have showered you with gifts and you have no doubt furnished and decorated a nursery.

In the same way your Catholic community, through the sacrament of Baptism, welcomes and offers spiritual strength and encouragement as your child begins a life-long journey of faith.

Our baptismal preparation program, Welcome Little Ones to St. Alphonsus is a one hour discussion that will help you better understand the sacrament of Baptism. This class can be taken while awaiting the birth of your child or shortly after the baby is born.

The discussion meets the first Tuesday of January, March, May, July, September and November at 7:00 pm in the Parish Center located on Walnut Street. If you have not attended a baptismal preparation class at St. Alphonsus in the last three years you must participate in a Welcome Little Ones to St. Alphonsus session.

Please take time now to consider which of the sessions fits into your plans to celebrate your baby's first step on his or her Christian journey. Call the Parish Office at 630-257-2414 to schedule the baptismal preparation session along with your baptismal date. Next date is July 7th.

Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha

July 14

What heroic deeds cause us to remember Kateri Tekakwitha, who died at the age of 24, only seven years after she was baptized? Kateri was born in upstate New York in 1656. Her mother, a Christian Algonquin, and her father, a Mohawk warrior, died of smallpox when Kateri was four.

Kateri survived the epidemic but was left disfigured and partially blind. She grew up in the care of her uncle.

When Kateri was eleven, a group of Jesuit missionaries (called “Blackrobes” by the native peoples) visited Kateri’s village. Their stories touched her deeply. At the age of 17, she took the courageous step of being baptized. Her decision to be baptized angered her relatives. They knew of so-called Christians who had burned villages and brought deadly diseases to the Native American peoples. Kateri also chose not to marry, which was unthinkable for a young girl in her culture.

The opposition of her relatives to her choices led Kateri to flee to a Christian settlement near Montreal. There she taught young children and cared for the sick and aged. She quickly became known for her remarkable acts of penance and prayer. But soon her health began to fail. She died in 1680 at the age of 24.

Because she followed the traditional Christian virtues of prayer, fasting and works of mercy to such an extraordinary degree, it was not long before word of her life spread far and wide. Kateri was beatified, a preliminary step for sainthood, in 1980. She is the first Native American and the first American lay person to receive this honor. We honor the “Lily of the Mohawks” each year on July 14.

Relay For Life of Lemont and Homer Glen will be from 6 p.m.

July 10 to 6 a.m. July 11 at the Lemont High School Sports Complex, 131st and Bell Road .

Relay For Life is an overnight event that brings together the community in the fight against cancer.
Relay For Life is not an athletic competition, but rather a walk where at least one team member walks around the field throughout the night, signifying that cancer never sleeps.

Teams of 8 -15 members are now forming. Teams raise money before and at the event to help fund cancer research, early detection and prevention programs and local services for cancer patients and their families.

Any person who has had cancer is invited to take part in the survivors' lap and survivors' reception which is at 6 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. at the beginning of the event. Registration is free to cancer survivors and their caregivers but registration is required.

Luminaria are sold for $10 each in memory of those lost to cancer, those who have cancer and those who fought and won. When the sun goes down, hundreds of luminaria light the way under the stars, and the names of those being remembered are read.

Volunteers are needed to help the day of the event for set-up, traffic management, registration, and other logistic tasks.

Thinking about becoming a Catholic?
At St. Alphonsus we have a process called...

An invitation to join the Church

Who might attend this program?

- Anyone who has never been baptized.
- Anyone baptized from another denomination.
- A baptized Catholic who has not been raised in the faith and would like to receive Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

- * I definitely want to become a Catholic.
- * I think I might want to become a Catholic.
- * I'm "just looking" - not sure at this time.
- * I don't want to join, but just want to know what Catholics believe.
- * I'm Catholic, but have had little or no contact with the Church.

PLEASE PRAYERFULLY CONSIDER THE RCIA THIS YEAR.
